Acclaimed director Yale Farber (Les Blancs, The Crucible) directs an international cast in this re-telling of Salomé. Originally broadcast live from the National Theatre on Thursday 22nd June as part of National Theatre Live, this production is still available in cinemas across the UK and internationally.

An occupied desert nation. A radical from the wilderness on hunger strike. A girl whose mysterious dance will change the course of the world. This charged retelling turns the infamous biblical tale on its head, placing the girl we call Salomé at the centre of a revolution. Internationally acclaimed director Yaël Farber (Les Blancs) draws on multiple accounts to create her urgent, hypnotic production on the Olivier stage.

Launched in 2009, National Theatre Live broadcasts have been seen by an audience of over 6.5 million people at 2500 venues in 60 countries. The first season began in June 2009 with the acclaimed production of Phédre starring Oscar winner Helen Mirren. Recent broadcasts include Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead from The Old Vic Theatre with Daniel Radcliffe and Josh McGuire, Hedda Gabler with Ruth Wilson, Sir Ian McKellen and Sir Patrick Stewart in No Man's Land, Benedict Cumberbatch in Hamlet, Tom Hiddleston in Coriolanus, Gillian Anderson in A Streetcar Named Desire, James Corden in One Man, Two Guvvners, Jonny Lee Miller and Benedict Cumberbatch in Frankenstein and War Horse. Sky Arts is the UK sponsor for National Theatre Live.

Salomé is still showing in selected cinemas across the UK and internationally as part of National Theatre Live. To find your nearest cinema go to
